

IRELAND'S GREAT HUNGER MUSEUM

Annual Funding Opportunities

Please consider the impact your gift can have at Ireland's Great Hunger Museum each year. The following are examples of how your annual donation will touch lives and share the lessons of Ireland's Great Hunger with generations to come.

Levels

- $100 – supports a children's art activity at the museum (10-15 children)
 - $250 – supports a children's event (music, magic, storytelling)
 - $500 – supports a lecture program (scholarly, book signing, genealogy and others)
(Includes name recognition on the IGHM website and two reserved seats)
 - $1,000 – supports a musical event at the museum
(Includes name recognition on the IGHM website and two reserved seats)
 - $1,500 – supports a lecture by an international scholar or artist
(Includes name recognition on the IGHM website and two reserved seats)
 - $2,500 – supports a premier music event at the museum
(Includes name recognition on the IGHM website and four reserved seats)
 - $5,000 – helps to support the publishing of one Famine Folio (ongoing series)
(Includes name recognition in folio and on the IGHM website and four signed copies of the folio)
-

Special Projects Funding Opportunities

Levels

- $10,000 and up – supports future acquisitions (paintings, sculpture, multimedia, drawings, etc.)
(Includes name recognition wherever the work is on display and on the IGHM website)
- $25,000 – supports the development of a video for children to be shown at the museum and available for schools (ages 10 and up)
(Includes name recognition and private viewing of the video followed by a reception at the museum for 10 people)
- $50,000 and up – lead sponsor for a new exhibition at the museum or for a traveling exhibition to Ireland or elsewhere
(Includes name recognition and private reception at the museum for 20 people prior to the opening of the exhibition)

All donations directly benefit Ireland's Great Hunger Museum.

Visit ighm.org to complete our online giving form or mail a check (made payable to "Ireland's Great Hunger Museum") at 275 Mount Carmel Avenue, Hamden, CT 06518.